I am Life Insurance!

I am not a father—Yet the welfare and education of sons and daughters everywhere are my great concern.

I am not a husband—But the security and happiness of all wives are under my protection.

I am the prudent and faithful friend of the widow, the orphan, the disabled and the aged.

I provide security and contentment for the old man and make his old age serene and bright.

I give the young man courage and enable him to take advantage of his opportunities. I give him an optimistic outlook, a sense of security and help him to maintain his self-respect.

I have taken an active part in the economic and social life of the nation. My resources have helped the farm, the factory and the railroad. I have helped build and sustain America.

I have been tested by time. Other institutions pass, but I remain. Neither prosperity, nor calamity, nor depression have made me break faith with those who trusted me nor made me violate the trust reposed in me.

The wise man knows me and welcomes me. I ask for little; I give much in return. I give him freedom—freedom from care—freedom from a heavy heart—freedom from financial failure.

He who places his faith in me shall never want. I AM LIFE INSURANCE!

The above essay was written by Miss Joan Augustas, a high school student, daughter of an attorney. It was awarded first prize in a contest sponsored by the Chicago Association of Life Underwriters.
